

A large equestrian statue of Genghis Khan, the founder of the Mongol Empire, stands prominently on a grassy hill. The statue is made of a dark, metallic material and depicts the Khan on horseback, holding a bow and arrow. Behind the statue is a large, circular, light-colored building with many arched windows. The sky is a deep blue with scattered white clouds. The foreground is a grassy field with some dry patches. A paved path leads up the hill towards the building. In the distance, to the left of the main building, there are smaller statues of riders on horseback.
